By TOM HOGE
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union today formally withdrew its controversial complaint against U.S. spy plane flights over Soviet territory.

Soviet Delegate Valerian A. Zorin told the General Assembly's 99-nation Political Committee that he was acting in the interest of easing international tension and improving relations between his country and the United States.

Zorin called for the withdrawal of two other hot issues — Hungary and Tibet — by the free world. The United States, however, said these questions were not in the same category as the Soviet U2 plane complaint. It resorted to its position as to whether it would push for full debate.

Referring to President Kennedy's order prohibiting U.S. military planes from flying over Soviet territory, Zorin said that "under the new conditions the Soviet Union does not insist on the discussion" of the spy plane question.

U.S. Delegate Charles Yost welcomed Zorin's withdrawal of the U2 complaint, but he added: "The other items to which he referred do not fall in precisely the same category. My delegation would wish to reserve its position as to the propriety and necessity of considering at this session the other items to which the delegate of the U.S.S.R. referred."

The exchange took place at the close of the Political Committee's morning debate on African aid. Acting chairman Karel Kurka of Czechoslovakia announced the committee would meet Monday to continue debate on African aid and possibly to begin discussion of Cuba's charges of U.S. aggression.

Big Idea Is Eternal, Kiwanis Told

The big idea, according to the Rev. Harold Davis who is currently conducting a Methodist revival meeting at the W.O.W. hall here, revolves around those things which are eternal.

"These things are permanent, not temporary, and these are the things in everyone's life that count for the most," the Rev. Mr. Davis told the Hope Kiwanis club at its luncheon meeting yesterday.

The Rev. Rufus Sorrells, pastor, spoke briefly and said the results of the revival campaign might lead to the decision of establishing a second Methodist church in Hope. He urged the public to attend the meetings, held nightly.

Kiwanian Clifford Franks had charge of the program. Introduced as new members of the club were James Howell, manager of West's Department store; and Jim Neal, new manager of Morgan & Lindsey.

Guests included: David McKenney of Hope; Harvey Deaton of Indiana.

Two Fires Reported By Local Firemen

Firemen were called to the 500 block of N. Hervey this morning where apparently a cigarette had caused the upholstery of a truck to smolder. There was little damage. The owner could not be immediately identified.

A grain elevator at Feeders Supply Co. caught fire from welding sparks yesterday but very little damage resulted, according to a Fire Department report. One truck was sent to the scene.

Underworld Chieftain Is Deported

GUATEMALA (AP) — Carlos Marcello, New Orleans underworld chieftain deported from the United States, today faced arrest or deportation again if Guatemalan immigration officials can catch him.

Marcello arrived here Tuesday aboard a U.S. border patrol plane and promptly disappeared in company with Col. Antonio Batres, second in command of the Guatemalan air force.

Immigration officials waiting for Marcello were left empty-handed when his plane landed at a military airport. They angrily vowed to hunt him down.

"If he is a Guatemalan, we are going to arrest him, and if he isn't, we are going to deport him," said Ramon Alvarado, immigration office spokesman.

Marcello's connection with the air force officer was not known. The air force declined comment.

Immigration officials could not explain why the plane landed at the air force base. They said they were unable to find Marcello in the city.

"We have checked all hotels, and he isn't there," said Alvarado.

Marcello, 51, reputedly directed a huge police-protected crime syndicate with headquarters in Louisiana's Jefferson Parish, adjoining New Orleans, and operations in other parts of Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Texas and Arkansas.

Labeled the No. 1 law violator in the United States by Sen. Estes Kefauver, Marcello conducted a running court battle for nine years against the U.S. government's attempts to deport him because of a narcotics conviction and because he had never become a citizen despite long residence in the United States.

Three times he took his case to the U.S. Supreme Court, losing each time.

Immigration officials in New Orleans clamped handcuffs on Marcello without warning Tuesday when he showed up for his regular tri-monthly reporting visit to the immigration office. He was hustled aboard the airplane without time to pack a toothbrush or say goodbye to his wife.

U.S. authorities said Guatemala had agreed to accept a birth record provided by an informant showing Marcello was a Guatemalan, born Calogeros Minacore on Feb. 6, 1910, to an Italian couple in the village of Palo Blanco.

Alvarado's remarks indicated he was not satisfied Marcello is a Guatemalan. Other Guatemalan officials said when Marcello left Guatemala for the United States, he carried an exit permit, not a passport, and identified himself as a businessman named Calogeros Minacore.

Loss in Laos Would Be Laid to JFK

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican congressional leaders appear to be constructing a record aimed at putting the blame on the Kennedy administration if Laos eventually falls into Communist hands.

Their strategy, not publicly admitted, seems directed at countering Democratic contentions that President Kennedy inherited from the previous Republican administration of Dwight D. Eisenhower an almost insoluble crisis in Laos.

Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois fired an other round Tuesday in behalf of the GOP at an informal news conference. He contended that for formation of a coalition government in the Southeast Asian country would only "postpone the evil day" of a Communist takeover.

Dirksen said he was "greatly distressed" by a suggestion of roving Ambassador W. Averell Harriman that neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma will have to have a place in any coalition government that might be established.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk is expected to be questioned about this point at a scheduled confidential briefing of members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee next Tuesday.

It was Dirksen's theme that if Communists win a place in the kind of neutralist government Kennedy has said he favors in Laos, the result will be that they will win command of the country. He said "the history books show that's what always happens."

Several Republican leaders have pursued Dirksen's course.

Cooley Held in Death of His Wife

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — Spade Cooley, 50, who coasted to fame on the strains of Western music, sat glumly in a jail cell today—accused of the brutal murder of his estranged wife, Ella Mae.

The ex-musician, who had turned to real estate development in recent years, was arrested after summoning an ambulance to his rambling home in the foothills of the Tehachapi Mountains late Monday night.

The ambulance crew rushed Mrs. Cooley, 37, nude except for a blanket around her, to Tehachapi Valley Hospital. A physician pronounced her dead at 12:20 a.m. Tuesday.

Sheriff's officers said Mrs. Cooley evidently was beaten or choked to death. The officers said the couple's daughter, Melody, 14, told of seeing the frightening scene—or part of it—before running from the house. The couple's son, 12, was not at home.

Cooley, former radio-TV fiddler and handclapper and winner of two Emmy awards in the early days of television, was booked on suspicion of murder. Investigators said he admitted slapping his wife but didn't elaborate.

Although he had filed for divorce last March 17, charging incompatibility, Cooley and his wife of 15 years had returned to their hillside ranch, 80 miles northeast of Los Angeles, over the weekend. In his divorce suit, Cooley had sought custody of their two children.

Laos Troops Move Out to Counter Reds

By JOHN RODERICK
VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — About 500 loyal Laotian parachute troops dropped into the area northwest of Muong Kassy today to counter pro-Communist rebel threats north of this capital, Western sources reported.

The parachute troops, headed by Commander-in-Chief Boun Leuth, took off before dawn from the royal capital of Luang Prabang in at least 10 transport planes and 11 or more helicopters, some of the latter delivered only a week ago from Thailand by U.S. Marines, the informants said.

The move followed reports that Communist Pathet Lao forces dropped 300 parachute troops on the vital North-South Highway 20 miles south of Muong Kassy Tuesday. The royal forces' action would be an outflanking move. Muong Kassy is about 100 miles north of here.

The stepped up military operations appeared to be part of efforts by each side to consolidate its position as international diplomatic maneuvers increased the possibility of a cease-fire.

Britain today obtained the assent of the royal government to cease-fire proposals and assurances of cooperation in British-Russian peace moves to end the Laos crisis. The British indicated they expect to join with the Russians in an appeal for a cease-fire within the next two days.

The two countries, cochairmen of the Geneva Indochina armistice conference of 1954, are expected to issue an order that both sides stop fighting and remain where they are.

Belgium Is Ready to Leave Congo

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Belgium has notified the United Nations that it is ready to comply immediately with U.N. resolutions calling for the withdrawal of Belgian military personnel from the Congo.

The news of the Belgian decision was transmitted to U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld in a note dated April 3 and made public today. The note said steps already had been taken to pull out some personnel.

Withdrawal of Belgian forces has been one of the main issues in the current U.N. debate on the Congo. Asian and African nations have been working on a resolution demanding that the Belgians get out within 21 days.

The note indicated that Belgium would assist the United Nations in trying to get the Congolese authorities to release Belgian civilian personnel, but it said Belgium is not in a position to order them out.

Informed quarters disclosed that U.N. negotiators already have opened discussions with Congolese President Joseph Kasavubu on the withdrawal of Belgian employed by the Leopoldville government.

Irish UN Men Seize Port in Elizabethville

By ERROL FRIEDMANN
ELIZABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP) — An advance guard of a battalion of Irish U.N. troops flew into riot-torn Elizabethville today and immediately occupied the airport. They met with no resistance from Katanga President Moise Tshombe's army or police.

A reliable U.N. source said the Irish had been sent to hold the airport until the arrival of Indian Gurkhas in Elizabethville, a move violently opposed by Tshombe.

The airport's guard of Swedish U.N. troops, who were attacked Tuesday by a rampaging mob incited by Tshombe, retired to their camp on the outskirts of Elizabethville.

The Irish vanguard numbered about 150 troops, heavily armed and in full battle dress.

Another 500 were expected in the next few hours.

Katanga government officials apparently were unaware of the arrival of the Irish until it was too late to try to prevent their landing. As the first Skymasters and C-119 flying boxcars roared in from the U.N.-occupied Kamina base in west Katanga, Tshombe was in conference with Gen. Sean McKewen of Ireland, the U.N. military commander in the Congo.

McKewen flew from Leopoldville to confer with Tshombe about the mob rampage Tuesday against the U.N. troops in Elizabethville.

Macmillan, Kennedy Air Problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and President Kennedy met today for talks on world problems.

Of foremost concern was the crisis in Laos and prospects for a cease-fire there.

A fleet of limousines brought the British leader and his ranking foreign affairs advisers into the White House three minutes ahead of the scheduled start of three days of intensive policy discussions.

A bright sun poured down, but the air was cool and crisp.

Macmillan went directly into the White House and was ushered to Kennedy's office where he was greeted by the President.

The whole party then was escorted by Kennedy to the White House rose gardens just outside the presidential office, for picnics.

The Cabinet room was chosen for the formal discussions.

Although many problems of cold war strategy were due to be considered, today's conversations were expected to concentrate on the rather complex British proposal for a Laotian cease-fire.

The British have received indications from the Soviets that Russia will accept the British plan for a verified cease-fire before the beginning of 14-nation talks on pacification of the troubled Asian nation.

Faubus Dips Into His Emergency Fund to Aid Children's Home

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
REPUBLICANS flexed their muscles in Texas Tuesday, but St. Louis handed the GOP a setback in its drive to woo big city votes.

Republican John G. Tower, a Goldwater-type Republican, led a field of 70 in the Texas special election to fill the Senate seat left vacant when Lyndon B. Johnson resigned to become vice president.

The only major question remaining as the Texas Election Bureau finished counting the votes was who would face Tower, only Republican on the ballot, in the June 3 runoff.

The race for second place was between Sen. William A. Blakley, currently holding the job by temporary appointment, and Rep. Jim Wright.

Latest returns gave Tower 321,096 votes; Blakley 186,666; Wright 166,770.

In St. Louis, Democrat Raymond B. Tucker won a third, four-year term as mayor by a 41,428-vote margin over Republican Ben H. Lindbergh. Final, unofficial returns gave Tucker 100,889; Lindbergh 59,471.

The Republicans had hoped this campaign would mark the first success of their drive to revive the party organization in the big cities, where the GOP fared poorly in last fall's presidential election.

Lindbergh had received strong backing from the Republican National Committee, which put St. Louis at the top of a list of big cities scheduled for special attention.

In other elections, Los Angeles Mayor Norris Poulson jumped into an early lead over his eight rivals in his bid for a third term and Circuit Judge Myron Gordon, a Democrat, pulled away from former State Atty. Gen. Stewart G. Honeck, a Republican, in the race for the Wisconsin Supreme Court.

In Aurora, Ill., life promises to be quieter for the next four years than it has been for the past eight. Paul Egan lost his bid for a third term as mayor.

Egan — who left public assistance rolls to become mayor — was defeated by Jay L. Hunter, 70, realtor and retired school teacher.

The defeat ended eight stormy years of firing police chiefs and feuding with the city council. On one occasion, Egan named a parrot as police chief.

Tower, 35, former college government professor, campaigned against President Kennedy's New Frontier with the support of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

Goldwater, leader of the Republican conservatives, campaigned for Tower throughout Texas.

Blakley, a wealthy Dallas businessman, also is a conservative. He also is opposed to much of the administration program.

Wright is classified as a political moderate.

If he wins in the runoff, Tower would be the first Republican elected to the U.S. Senate from Texas since Reconstruction days.

Camden Plant Sells for $8 Million

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — International Paper Co. submitted the apparent high bid of $8,146,000 for the entire Shumaker Naval Ammunition Depot near Camden, Ark., Tuesday.

The depot, built by the government at a cost of approximately $120 million, produced missiles and rockets during World War II and the Korean War.

The successful bidder is expected to be announced later today following completion of tabulation.

Second highest apparent bidder was the Brown Engineering Corporation of Houston, Tex., with a bid of $8,105,350.

Twenty-five bids on the entire plant or sections were opened by the General Services Administration.

Land on the 100-mile square depot was divided into eight separate sections, subject to individual sales.

El Dorado to Vote on Plant Financing

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — An election is expected to be called here within 60 days following the announcement Tuesday that a $2 million rubber plant would be located here.

Announcement was made jointly by the Greater El Dorado committee and Crocord Rubber Co. of Lima, Ohio, that the plant would be built subject to approval of financing provisions in a special election provided for under Amendment 49.

The announcement said production would get under way this fall if financing is approved. Initially there would be 250 employees with the number to eventually reach 400, officials said.

Chase-Crocord, Inc. would operate the plant which would produce rubber shoe soles and heels, friction tape, carpet underlay and custom molded industrial rubber products.

Company officials said the new firm would assume some of the assets of the Lima concern and a Quincy, Mass., plant of Chase & Sons, Inc., the parent firm.

About $2.5 million in equipment would be transferred from Lima, officials said.

Amendment 49 provides for underwriting industrial financing through approval by a county of an ad valorem tax. However, payments are generally made from property rentals without a tax being levied.

Says Capitol Dome Needs Repairing

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas' Capitol dome is in a bad state of repairs, Sec. of State Nancy Hall said, and something must be done before someone is hurt.

Mrs. Hall made public Tuesday a survey conducted at the Capitol during February which shows that several large cement slabs in the dome are loose.

On Christmas Eve, 1957, three large concrete sections fell from a bannister near the top of the dome but no one was injured.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus' controversial $16 million omnibus construction bill, which is currently hampered by litigation, provides appropriations of $135,000 and $250,000 for Capitol repairs and a new elevator.

Mrs. Hall estimated it would cost $81,000 to correct the damage and provide water proofing and a general overhaul of the upper dome.

Spring Hill Class Play Is Friday

On Friday night April 7, at 8 p.m., the Spring Hill Senior Class will present "A Pair of Country Kids" in the High School auditorium.

It is a comedy in three acts that takes place in Joggins Junction at the Starr Boarding House. There we have two old maids who are trying to find husbands. Then, as if an answer to their prayers, a man comes from the city. Each old maid is determined to get him. Next, oil is discovered — then the fireworks begin.

The characters are portrayed by Carolyn Sanders, Sherry Cullins, Mary Anderson, Linda Galloway, Betty Smith, Jimmy Anderson, Charlie Smoother, Jerrel Byrom, Richard Greenhaw, and Thomas Burns.

Admission will be 50c for adults and 25c for students. The public is invited.

Says He Was Forced to Act By Enemies

By JOHN R. STARR
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus today allotted $35,000 from his emergency fund to get the Children's Colony out of financial difficulties resulting from a suit against the governor's 1961 omnibus law.

One immediate effect will be that 32 children, newest inmates of the colony, will not be sent home, as it had been feared they might.

In a statement announcing the appropriation Faubus blasted those responsible for the suit for "showing the cruel and inhuman attitude and the savagery with which they will deal with helpless children in order to cause difficulty for me."

The words were similar to those used by Pulaski Rep. J. H. Cottrell Jr., the plaintiff, last week to describe Faubus' action in halting all state construction programs and all emergency appropriations in the law, until the suit is settled.

Faubus was urged from several quarters to use the emergency fund for the Children's Colony. He declined to act for several days and apparently made the appropriation today with reluctance.

"I wish to point out that the governor's emergency fund is set up for use during emergencies and unforeseen disasters," he said.

"I have now been forced unnecessarily to use approximately half of the fund available because of the adamant and unreasonable attitude of Cottrell and his associates, thus removing a great portion of the fund from possible use should a disaster strike between now and July 1."

Faubus said his action today did not resolve all the emergencies resulting from the suit. He said the

Potential of Red River Basin Cited

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — The Red River Valley Association sees great potentialities for the basin under the Kennedy administration, and a Texas already has applied for a federal permit for commercial navigation of the river.

Rep. Clifford Davis, D-Tenn., told delegates to the association's annual meeting Tuesday "the new national approach to water resources recognizes the fallacy of the policy of no new starts by the last administration."

Under the Eisenhower administration, budget emphasis was on projects under way, to the exclusion of new ones.

"The Red River basin has a tremendous potential for development," Davis said.

For fiscal 1962 there is $15,000 for a major navigation survey of the river, Davis said, in addition to $35,000 in the fiscal 1961 budget.

Rep. Overton Brooks, D-La., told the delegates, "if this conference does nothing else, it will give serious, immediate attention to the matter of navigation from the mouth of the Red River to the Denison (Tex.) Dam."

Brooks commended Fort Worth, Tex., oilman Barney Holland for his efforts to establish year-round commercial navigation on the river. Last year Holland made the first commercial trip up the river in a half century. He has asked the Interstate Commerce Commission for a certificate of public convenience and necessity for water transportation on the Red River.

state faces the loss of more than $400,000 in federal funds because of the construction suspension.

The governor declined to answer a question as to whether he would call a special session of the Legislature to re-appropriate construction funds rather than risk loss of federal money.

Faubus' suspension order last week affected a $7,500,000 project
at the Children's Colony, the maximum security building at State Hospital and several National Guard armories.

The appropriation will permit
the colony to accept a total of 64
students to fill two newly completed cottages. Thirty-two children already had been admitted and Faubus said last week they might be sent home because of the suit.

Money for operation of these cottages after July 1 is included in the colony's regular appropriation for the next fiscal year.

A $50,000 appropriation was included in the omnibus law to permit opening and operation of the cottages.

Faubus again today accused Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the Arkansas Education Association, of being a member with Cottrell of a small clique which is seeking to destroy his $26 million state expenditures program.

A proposed $60 million bond is also included in the overall program.

Faubus said he had asked his attorneys to prepare an answer to Cottrell's suit as soon as possible so that the constitutional test
can be decided quickly.

Chancellor Guy E. Williams,
who will hear the suit, Tuesday set a deadline of April 25 for pleadings in the case.

Faubus said he met Tuesday
with representatives of the Children's Colony but that they did not ask him for money from the emergency fund.

Jonesboro School Board, turned down in its request for a 15-mill tax increase last December, will seek approval of a 10-mill boost this year.

The Board Tuesday night adopted a revised 1961-62 budget calling for expenditure of $998,282. This anticipates a $73,910 deficit, but this would be made up by an expected revenue gain of $74,696
should the 10-mill tax increase be approved in the December school election.

A $38,000 fund-raising drive was conducted this year to provide funds for a full school year after defeat of the 15-mill tax proposal.

The Board also asked the state Education Department to declare Jonesboro a hardship case and relieve it from some provisions of a state law governing matching funds. Without this, it said, an 18.38 mill increase would be needed for next year.

The Board's actions followed recommendations by a 24-man citizens study committee. The budget includes a $150 per year increase for each teacher.

Irish UN Men

The Katanga radio and Elisabeth-ville's morning newspaper said today—before the Irish arrived—
that shombe and his government had won a great victory.

"The United Nations is shuttered," a broadcast said. "They should go home now."

Tshombe had whipped his people into a frenzy after the Swedish guard at the airport arrested 24 Katanga army troops and a Belgian officer who tried to seize control of the field. The Katanga president made clear in a statement that his purpose was to prevent the arrival of Indian U.N.
troops. He opposes them because of Indian Prime Minister Nehru's
avowed opposition to Tshombe.

As the mob fever mounted, the U.N. command in Elisabethville agreed to return the airport to the joint control of Katanga police and U.N. troops. But some 4,000 Africans — many of them
armed with long-bladed knives — were already on the march to the field.

The airport building was stoned, several Swedes were injured on the road to the airport and about 60 U.N. personnel were arrested, ridiculed and held for periods ranging from 30 minutes to five hours by Katanga troops or police.

An uneasy calm prevailed today
in downtown Elisabethville before the Irish took over the airport.
Katanga police patrolled streets
thronged with thousands of idle Africans.

Cards Chances for Flag Hinge on Ken Boyer

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Talk about the St. Louis Cardinals' pennant chances and you talk about the power of Ken Boyer and Bill White, the defensive help of Julian Javier and starting pitchers Ernie Broglio, Larry Jackson and Bob Miller. But you start the talk with the ace who's always in a hole—Lindy Mc-Daniel.

Lanky Lindy proved himself
the best relief pitcher in the business last season.

It was Lindy once again Tuesday, following Broglio to the mound as the Cardinals made it four in a row over the American League champion New York Yankees, winning 2-1 in 11 innings
at St. Petersburg, Fla. Broglio blanked the Yanks on three hits for seven innings. McDaniel, after giving up his first earned run in 13 innings this spring, resumed his shutout spell over the last four frames for the decision.

Elsewhere, the Washington Senators, leading American League clubs with a 13-8 exhibition record, ripped the Chicago White Sox 12-3; the Detroit Tigers walloped the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates, still tops in the exhibition standings, 10-2; the Minnesota Twins defeated Milwaukee
9-4; Cincinnati beat Philadelphia
6-5; Kansas City outlasted Baltimore 11-10 in 10 innings; the Chicago Cubs edged the Los Angeles Angels 4-3; the Los Angeles
Dodgers breezed past Cleveland
8-5, and the San Francisco Giants beat Tacoma, their Pacific Coast
farm club, 7-5.

A single by Alex Grammas drove in the tie-breaking run for the Cardinals and hung the loss on Jim Coates, who worked the last four innings for the Yanks.

Willie Tasby jolted across half a dozen runs for the Senators with a pair of homers, one a grand slam and both off lefty Juan Pizarro. Cal McLish started for the White Sox in the game at Sarasota, leaving with a 3-2 lead after allowing five hits in seven innings and driving in two runs with a single.

The Tigers decked two of the Pirates' aces—Vern Law and Face—as the champs closed their Fort Myers schedule with a 17-8 record. Detroit belted 14 hits, one a home run by Al Kaline. Bob Bruce went all the way with a six-hitter, giving up the Bucs'
runs on a homer by Bob Skinner
in the third inning.

The Twins took similar liberties
with another National League ace, cracking all but one of their 17 hits off Lew Burdette of the Braves at Orlando. Earl Battey and Bob Allison each hit two-run triples for the Twins. John De-merit hit two homers and a pair of singles for the Braves.

A pinch triple by Jerry Lynch
and a balk by Phil's rookie
Dwight Siebler did it for the Reds

Man Fatally Shot at Lone Pine

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP) —
Albert McMillan, 60, of the Lone Pine Community near here, was fatally shot Monday night. Police held his brother-in-law, Robert Thurlow Baskin, 69, of Clarksville.
McMillan was shot once in the stomach with a .22 caliber rifle.
He died five hours later in a Clarksville hospital.

Deputy Prosecutor Marvin Holman said Baskin was held in Johnson County Jail on an open charge. He said Baskin told him McMillan was shot as the men
scuffled over the rifle.

In the ninth after right-hander Joey Jay grew tired and blew a four-run lead in the eighth, Mary Throneberry's first home run of the spring put it away for the A's, who tied it on Andy Carey's homer in the ninth.

A two-run homer by Duke Snider triggered a four-run first inning for the Dodgers, who coasted in behind the six-hit pitching of Roger Craig for seven innings.

Rookie Billy Williams, who homered for the Cubs' first run, rapped a three-run ninth with an infield hit against Tex Clevenger of the Angels. The Giants took care of Tacoma, after dedicating their $2 million minor league
camp at Casa Grande, Ariz., with Willie Mays hitting a home run
in support of right-hander Jack Sanford.

Fishing Around Arkansas Lakes

LITTLE ROCK (AP) —Here is a fishing forecast from the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission:
Lake Maumelle: Clear mid portion, but muddy around edges.
Water about 23 inches high. Bass and crappie fair to good on live minnows and small flies.

Lake Hamilton: Water dingy but fishable. Black bass fair to good on minnows and artificial bait. Crappie fair to good on minnows. Bream poor.

Lake Conway: Water dingy and a little above normal. All fishing fair.

Lake Norfork: Black bass good on deep-running lures. Crappie fair on minnows and doll flies.

Lake Greason: Water clear and normal. Largemouth black bass fair on minnows and artificial bait. Crappie fair on minnows.

Asks Investigation

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)
—President Ngo Dinh Diem's government has appealed to the international control commission to make an "immediate and energetic" investigation of growing Communist terrorism and subversion throughout South Viet Nam,
a government source said today.

SMU Defeats The Porkers

DALLAS (AP) —A five-run first inning barrage by Southern Methodist proved more than enough to defeat the University of Arkansas 7-1 Tuesday in a nonconference baseball game.

Arkansas' lone run came in the seventh after Jarrell Williams walked and David Horne doubled.

EQUALITY URGED

GREENWICH, Conn. (AP) —
The policy-making national council of the Protestant Episcopal Church has asked President Kennedy to issue an executive order to all federal agencies with anything to do with housing requiring that such housing be available to all regardless of "race, color or creed."

State Captures Old Miss Game

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) —
Jerry Huffstutler won his second game of the season in leading Arkansas State to a 9-8 victory over Mississippi in a nonconference baseball game Tuesday.

The Indians withstood a five-run Ole Miss scoring attack in the third by coming back to the flowing inning to score six runs.

Wife Tied To Mama's Apron Strings

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE and for each other.

Dear Helen:

How long does a woman have to live with her mother after marriage? I know one who has done this for 15 years. She has two children and a husband who's always worked — sometimes holding two jobs. (Perhaps he wanted to be away.)

The wife asks why her husband is irritable and unhappy. Never will she admit he does not want to live with her parents. There is absolutely no reason for them to, financially or otherwise. Should he leave, no matter how it hurts? Should not the mother tell her daughter to leave? Your answer may clear a stubborn mind. —So Glad I'm Not Him

Dear So Glad: Who are you, the mother, wife, husband or other woman? No matter. The answer would be the same. The Chinese symbol of trouble is two women under the same roof. It's the daughter's business to leave home and, if she doesn't, the mother should tell her. A husband and wife should live by themselves.

Hope: Mr. Bill Rosenbaum, Hope; Emmet; Mrs. Betty Hughes, Saratoga; Mr. Dave Stroud, Hope; Mrs. Denville Sparks, Hope; Mrs. Laura Turner, Hope; Mrs. Paul McClellan, Hope; Mrs. Bessie Poindexter, Emmet.

Friends will be sorry to learn that J. M. Harbin left today (Wednesday) for Booneville to enter the State Sanatorium.

We are having a family debate this Friday. The question is: "Do you think a 6-year-old boy who has a 12-year-old sister should dry the dishes?" Please answer in a hurry. —Linda, a Faithful Reader

Dear Linda: I think brother and sister should dry the dishes together. The happy family is one which works as a team.

Dear Helen: My wife and I fight from morning to night. Things get worse and worse. Her father and mother were the same but stuck it out. Is it best for our children if we stay together or separate? They are all that keeps us together. —T. O.

Dear T. O.: There is little to be gained by prolonging a marriage that has unquestionably failed. Children will in a loveless home. Divorce indicates the willingness to admit a mistake. If you and your wife agree that your marriage is a mistake and if your religion permits it, then divorce!

Send your problems to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Divorce."
